

ROI = Return On Investment

DreamIT Presents On- and Off-site Training

Right for Any Organization Running Microsoft Dynamics NAV (formerly Navision)

Drawing on our years of working with NAV users in diverse environments, the DreamIT team recognizes the greatest asset each of our clients has: "brainware" in the hands of its people, at all levels of the organization. Brainware is the accumulated functional knowledge, skills and intuition, which result from time spent in structured training, self-improvement, on work tasks, interacting with customers and vendors, over time. Training is the key.

Our training classes are designed to maximize the return on investment you sought in buying a NAV solution.

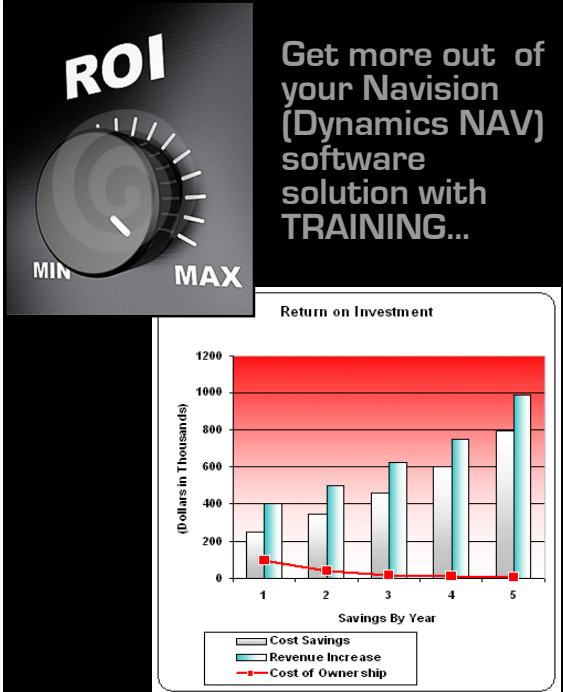

Class Attendees: Applying Newly-Learned Skills ("Brainware")
